

Please make travel arrangements to allow you to arrive and register on Sunday and stay through closing on either Thursday or Friday—we will start promptly on Monday morning! (If you register for college credit you must complete all contact hours.)
Breakfast and lunch each day is included in your Summer Institute registration—you're on your own for dinner!

Sunday, July 13 (2:00pm-7:00pm) — Registration for all participants

Monday, July 14 (8:30am-3:30pm)

AM Session: Michael Gurian: *Understanding the Minds of Boys and Girls

PM Session: Pat Crum: *Adolescents! What Are They Thinking!?! Understanding the Teen Brain

Monday, 7/9 - Evening Reception (5:00pm-7:00pm)

Spend some informal time with Michael, Kathy, Ralph Fletcher, Institute faculty, staff and fellow participants

Tuesday, July 15 (8:30am—3:30pm)

AM Session: Ralph Fletcher: *Boy Writers

“There is ample evidence to suggest that boy writers are not flourishing in our classroom. We need to understand male writers--their strengths, quirks, and ferocious energy--and do a better job of bringing them into the classroom community.”

PM Sessions: Becoming A Man: An Model Character Ed Program for High School Boys (Rob Kodama, Crespi HS)

In The Company of Women: Modeling Success for Girls (Claudia Sherry and Karen Boyk)

Turning Boys Into Readers and Writers (Alan Swaney)

Single-Sex Schools: What Have We Learned? (Fran Spielhagen)

Tuesday Night Special Activity—A very special Rocky Mountain Experience—Dinner and a Western Show at the family-friendly Flying W Ranch! (Additional fee. Family & friends are invited to join in the fun!)

Wednesday, July 16 (8:30am—4:00pm (All-day sessions))

Strategies for Teaching Boys & Girls: Participants will choose one age-level session

Pre-K&K — Elementary — Middle School — High School

(Betsy Hoke/Dakota Hoyt—Kelley King/Claudia Sherry—Peggy Daniels/Shameka McPherson—Alan Swaney/Rob Kodama/Billy Rook

From Theory to Practice for Non-teaching Programs (counselors, human services and nonprofit programs) (Kathy Stevens/Mittie Pedraza)

Thursday, July 17 (8:30am—12:00noon)

9:00-11:00: Coaching In The Classroom: Connecting Athletics to Academics (Billy Rook)

Making A Good Brain Great: Teaching Kids Brain Science (Kathy Stevens)

Mentoring Boys & Girls: Same, Different & Equal (Bob Haley/Norm Johnson/and...)

Girls and Math and Science: Yes They Can! (Claudia Sherry/Karen Boyk)

General: Now What? Developing An Action Plan (Team)

Closing: Are We Leaving No Children Behind? (Kathy Stevens)

Session beginning on Thursday afternoon is for those who want to become Gurian Institute Certified Trainers. A completed application and fee must be submitted prior to this session

Thursday, July 17 (1:00pm—4:00pm)

Becoming A Gurian Institute Certified Trainer: How It Works

The Curriculum: A Day in the Life of a GI Trainer

This session will cover the curriculum, materials, contracting process, and all issues relating to becoming a Gurian Institute Certified Trainer. Applicants will have the opportunity to certify in more than one area (education parenting, human services).

Friday, July 18 (9:00 am to 12:00noon)

Modeling the Curriculum: Trainer applicants will make a short presentation, prepared Thursday evening, for staff and colleagues. This session helps the Gurian Institute determine applicants level of skill presenting, rapport with an audience, and appropriate apprenticeship requirements.

GI Staff will be available following the close of this session to answer questions, process apps, etc.